

THE MOTHER'S GIFT: OR THE PRESENT TO THE LITTLE CHILDREN WHO ARE GOOD.

LONDON:
Printed and Sold by
J. JOHNSON, Strand, near St. Paul's Church.
1769.

[iii]

THE PREFACE

THE little Reader
for this valuable pre-lady who has made it her study, ever since her own child been capable of receiving to inculcate useful truths
them in a pleasing garb;
can contribute to the bene-
by "planting the generin the glowing breast," for her time has been well em-

A 2